1. Get Communications Ideas From Cactus Quill Winners

Join the winners of our 5th annual Cactus Quill Awards at the June 1 presentation lunch at Viscount Suite Hotel. See details and the link to RSVP at www.iabctucson.com.

If you can help with setting up for the meeting or with registration, contact Kathy Hippensteel, khippens@hughesfcu.org, or Steve Pender, steve@familylegacyvideo.com.

2. Meet Industry Professionals at Big C Mixer

The annual gathering of communication professionals is set for June 20 at Barrio Grille downtown. See details at www.iabctucson.com. Ad Fed will accept RSVPs later this month; watch for the link to its web site.

Each of the seven groups participating in the mixer will bring a package of goodies to give away as a door prize. If you would like to contribute to the IABC/Tucson package or if you would like to do light volunteer work during the event, contact Elena Acoba, acoba@dakotacom.net, 742-1979.

3. Cast Your Vote for New Board

Elections for the new chapter board continue through May 25. See the slate and cast your ballot at www.iabctucson.com; click on "Members Vote Here."

4. New Members Can Save in June

June is Membership Month for IABC/Tucson. We'll waive the $40 one-time registration fee for folks who newly join June 1-30. Contact Elena Acoba, acoba@dakotacom.net, 742-1979, for details.

Remember, members who refer people to join can earn a $25 rebate on their own membership renewals.

5. Welcome New Members

Altaira Citron is communications coordinator for AOL, our second AOL member.

Linda Kern, project coordinator and communications manager for Intuit, is our second member from that company.

Welcome to IABC/Tucson!
